

Moses appointed Joshua to be his successor and lead the Israelites into the promised land. With the waters of the Jordan River parting, Joshua and the tribes of Israel entered Canaan and conquered cities throughout the region. Then, Joshua divided the land among the twelve tribes of Israel.

